THIRD MASS MEETING ON CIVILIAN DEFENSE HELD MONDAY NIGHT

Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Dr. Marion J. Wolfe and Chief Air Raid Warden A. E. Cox, Speakers of Evening—Motion Pictures of Incendiary Bombs Feature of Program

The third mass meeting on civilian defense called for Monday night, was held at Bay High School in the auditorium at 7:30 with a record crowd on hand to hear four interesting speakers who were on the program.

Brother Alexis presided at the meeting and Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Director of the Civilian Defense Volunteer Organization, repeated the purposes of the organization and informed citizens that their attendance at these meetings would count as part of the time required in the different phases of training.

Dr. Marion J. Wolfe gave an interesting and informative talk on the blood bank proposed for Bay St. Louis and requested anyone wishing to become a donor to register. He for use where so many serious accidents occurring this same day, Monday, in which blood plasma had saved the victim who was critically injured. He stated that the American Red Cross was making a plea for blood donors, and also requested that the local citizens render this service for use where so many serious accidents occur. The mobile unit from Baptist Hospital which was to have been in Bay St. Louis on Thursday would not be here on that date as heretofore advised, but most likely donors would have to be taken to New Orleans, and they would be advised of the date later.

Mr. A. E. Cox, Chief Air Raid Warden for Hancock County, demonstrated one of the means of causing fires and stated that fire had always been a military weapon. Through the courtesy of Prof. S. J. Ingram, Jack Weston and James Ansley, a motion picture showing the type of incendiary bomb most commonly used by the enemy and simple means for extinguishing these bombs by these bombs and the disposal of the bomb was shown which was highly instructive.

Mr. Cox stated an auxiliary volunteer department for fire fighting is being formed, with Mr. Frank Quintini as head.

UNHEEDING OF SET SPEED LIMIT CAUSING ACCIDENTS

With an appeal being made by the President and all governing officials to reduce speed limits, which apparently is going unheeded, we note that several accidents occurred on Highway 90 during the past week-end.

On Sunday evening on Highway 90 near Bay St. Louis a car driven by Mrs. G. D. Fridline of Gulfport, Mississippi, was struck by a car driven by Sampson James, a negro of New Orleans and formerly of Kiln. All occupants of Mrs. Fridline's car were injured. Most seriously injured were Mrs. Frederick O. Barba and her daughter, Mary, three years of age. Other occupants of the Fridline car were Mrs. Fridline's two young children, Deborah, six and one-half years old; and Kenzie, three and one-half years.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Highway 90 and Waveland avenue. The officers of Hancock County arrested the negro, Sampson James, and charged him with drunken driving and he was tried by Judge L. B. Caperton and fined $100.00 and given three months in jail. He was compelled also to forfeit his driver's license. This was probably the maximum fine and jail sentence that could be imposed. However, we feel that it is high time that drunken driving be stopped.

It is our opinion that a drunken driver is far more dangerous than a maniac loose on the streets with a shot gun. We believe that, regardless of who it may be, if a person is caught drunk while driving an automobile, he should be put in jail, and, as far as we are concerned, kept there.

News Of Interest From Former Resident

Mrs. Theo. G. Steinhmann was in receipt of news this past week from her father, James N. Valzine, Sr., who is located in Los Angeles, California. Jimmie has been away from Bay St. Louis for nearly twenty-four years, but many of us can still remember him as the smiling affable clerk at the Bay Mercantile. He advises Mrs. Steinhmann that his nineteen-year-old son, Robert, has enlisted in the United States Navy. We would be glad indeed, for our old friend would pay us a visit and renew old acquaintances in Bay St. Louis.

BLACKOUT TEST HELD THURSDAY

Citizens Cooperate To Full Extent—Air Raid Wardens Do Excellent Job

As a means of future protection of civilians in the event of air raids, Bay St. Louis underwent its first test blackout on last Thursday night with the blowing of the sirens a few minutes after nine o'clock warning everyone that the blackout was on and all lights should be extinguished.

Bay St. Louisians in general cooperated in every way with the regulations and in a few seconds, the air raid wardens and their deputies began advising the captains of the different wards that their territories were completely blacked out. Mr. A. E. Cox, Chief Air Raid Warden for this county, at the central post, received the reports of his captains and stated excellent work was accomplished in the city and in the rural sections where telephones were not plentiful and which many deputies covered on bicycles.

The only lights showing after the report of all deputies were those of the railroad caution signals which heralded the approach of a train and because of the automatic signals could not be extinguished.

No casualties were reported during the blackout, extreme caution having been taken and most persons remained in their homes according to instructions previously given.

The siren which had been installed in the building housing the fire department was distinctly heard all over the city and for miles out in the rural sections and every phase of the test blackout was considered highly successful.

ACCIDENT MONDAY MORNING ON O. S. T.

Another serious accident took place on Monday morning, near Pearlington. The driver of one of the cars was Mr. Carl D. Kessler of New Orleans and he had as his passenger, Sergeant J. C. Goodwin of the 343rd Squadron School, Tyndall Field, Panama City, whose home is in Clarksville, Texas, where he had been visiting on furlough. The driver of the other car was Mr. Joseph Kohler of New Orleans.

Sergeant Goodwin was critically injured in this accident and Mr. Kessler and Mr. Kohler were both painfully injured.

From the report that we have had from the officers, Mr. Kohler who was a painting contractor, had been doing some work at Mobile, and apparently greatly fatigued and in need of rest, it is believed that he fell asleep at the wheel. The other car was struck, attempting to dodge the swaying car of Mr. Kohler.

Among Beautiful Gardens Of Bay Saint Louis

All over Bay St. Louis and Waveland beautiful gardens are appearing with a riot of color and gorgeous flower displays.

With azaleas and camellia japonicas in bloom at the same time and the yisteria just beginning to open their buds, a variety of color is on display at this season of the year.

Especially pretty is the garden about the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Wolfe on Carroll avenue where one of the largest and most beautiful azalea bushes is in bloom, and also some gorgeous daffodils.

Bay Waveland Garden Club Met on Thursday

The Bay-Waveland Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Gayle Aiken, Jr., 243 Beach Boulevard, Waveland, on Thursday, April 9th at three o'clock. Mrs. Charles P. Jones will read selections from two of her articles written for the "Manchester Guardian" and the "Reader's Digest."

Members are urged to attend this meeting and to bring their bulbs which are to be used at the Flower Show to be held Saturday and Sunday, May 2nd and 3rd.

ANOTHER OUTSTANDING BAY ST. LOUIS FAMILY

MR. AND MRS. EMILE PERRE

Mr. and Mrs. Emile Perre of Bay St. Louis have reared a family which this community should feel honored to call its own.

Mr. Perre was born and reared in Bay St. Louis. Mrs. Perre, the former, Anna Rita Suzeneau, was born in New Orleans and she and Mr. Perre were married on December 16, 1901. They have had seven children, the first dying in early childhood.

The eldest of the living children is Mrs. Leonide Cabell, a graduate of Saint Joseph's Academy and at present employed in the Hancock County Bank of Bay St. Louis.

Juliette Perre, the second daughter, is a graduate of Saint Joseph's Academy and Hotel Dieu School of nursing. She resides in Bay St. Louis and is engaged in her profession of nursing. The people of Bay St. Louis are fortunate in that she has remained in Bay St. Louis to practice her profession, and she has rendered a great service to the community.

Emile, Jr., a graduate of Saint Stanislaus College, left Bay St. Louis several years ago to take up employment with the United Fruit Company in Chicago. At this time he is District Manager for the United Fruit Company at Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. He is married and the father of two girls.

Lucille Perre, who also graduated at Saint Joseph's Academy, is living with her father and mother and until recently was an attaché of the Hancock County Library.

Edgar Perre left Bay St. Louis and joined his brother, Emile, in Chicago. In the early part of 1940 he enlisted in the Marine Corps. Today he is stationed on the Isle of Samoa. Since his enlistment he has made rapid strides and is now a sergeant in the United States Marines.

Leon, the youngest son, also joined his brother, Emile, in Chicago and in February, 1940 enlisted in the United States Navy. He was at Pearl Harbor at the time of the Japanese attack, and, as the people of Bay St. Louis well remember, was at first reported lost. However, news soon came that he was safe, and happy were the people of Bay St. Louis when this good news came to Mr. and Mrs. Perre. Leon is a First Class Seaman with the Pacific Fleet and has the rating of a Pointer.

Mr. and Mrs. Perre were engaged in the bakery business in Bay St. Louis for years, and when anyone spoke of bread the Perry Bakery was the by-word.

We in Bay St. Louis are justly proud of families like the Perre family, and we wish the father and mother a long life and hope that their sons will return safely to them when this war is over.

PINE HILLS LEASED BY U S GOVT.

Approximately 750 Men To Be Stationed There For The Time Being

The advanced group of 815 Bn. United States Engineers, numbering some one hundred and fifty men, commanded by Lieuts. Morris and Abel, arrived at Pine Hills on Monday evening and will be stationed there for the time being. We understand that the full Battalion will number about seven hundred and fifty men. They are occupying the former hotel building.

It is also our understanding that the Government has taken a lease on the premises, comprising approximately six and one-half square miles.

Pine Hills is very close to Bay St. Louis and we should try our best to do what we can to help entertain these boys. It was our pleasure to meet the officers and some of the men of the advanced contingent and in our opinion, they are splendid young men and real soldiers. Let's make them feel that they are a part and parcel of Bay St. Louis.

News From The Boys Who Receive News From Home

The boys away from home are glad to receive news from the old home town and I am sure that they are glad to send news back to the folks at home. The following article was received from one of the boys who is stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Fort Riley, Kansas, Cavalry Replacement Training Center, March 30th—Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, has representation at the nation's only cavalry replacement training center here. Four Bay St. Louis residents are nearing completion of their basic military instruction course.

Included in the group are Herbert C. Zengaring, Ernest Milam, Joseph Ziegler and Frank A. Trapani.

These troopers have been taught essentials of army life, from close order drill to mastery of machine gun, pistol and Garand rifle. Upon completion of an intensive training program they will be sent to another post for advanced duty.

After the opening High Mass at 8:30 to be celebrated by the spiritual director of the Union Father Niemeyer, the day will be spent in discussions of various assigned topics. These will be led by Fathers Vernon P. Aleman, New Orleans Archdiocesan Director of Sodality, and Jos. Brunini, Chancellor of Diocese of Natchez. It is expected that Father Lord, S. ### DEATH OF FATHER O'SULLIVAN

Occurred Thursday Morning at Ocean Springs—Aged 65 Years

News was received in Bay Saint Louis early Thursday morning of the sudden death of Rev. Father Dennis O'Sullivan, retired Catholic Priest who was assisting during the Lenten Season at Saint Alphonsus Church in Ocean Springs.

From the news received, it appears that Father O'Sullivan had been hearing confessions, felt bad and came out of the confession and dropped dead.

Father O'Sullivan was a native of Ireland, born December 26th, 1877, and was ordained at Alexandria, Egypt. He served in the African Missions for ten years. He came to Mississippi and was assigned as an assistant at Vicksburg. Later he was Pastor at Bassfield for a number of years. He then became Pastor of the Back Bay Church at Biloxi, and about three years ago retired on account of his health.

Since that time he has lived in Bay St. Louis at the Catholic Rectory and assisted in the affairs of the Parish of Our Lady of the Gulf. All who knew Father O'Sullivan loved him. He was truly a priest.

Funeral arrangements have not as yet been completed.

He was principal of the Pascagoula High School for quite a number of years prior to his entry into the armed service.

Samuel L. Martin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Martin, of the Flat Top Community, is a sergeant in Hq. Sqdn. 3rd Air Force, MacDill Field, Florida. We know that his parents and friends are proud of the advancement that he has made since his entry into the army.

Joseph Benvenuti, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Benvenuti of Bay St. Louis, enlisted in the army shortly after he graduated from Saint Stanislaus College. His friends will be glad to know that he has been promoted to Sergeant. In our opinion, this is quite an honor for a young man who has not yet reached his twentieth year. He is with W. D. C. & 4th Army; Hq. Co. Presidio of San Francisco, California.

FALSE ACCUSATIONS

It has been brought to our attention that rumors are being circulated that persons working in the Volunteer Civilian Defense Office and others who have been appointed as heads of committees and as air raid wardens, etc., are being paid salaries. The circulation of this rumor should be stopped. It is an outrage and an insult to the patriotism of the people who are giving their time and energy to the good work of civilian defense in Hancock County. In our opinion, the people engaged in civilian defense work deserve a lot of credit and should be highly complimented for their good work, instead of some gossip monger floating around asking questions as to how much the head of the Volunteer Civilian Defense Office is being paid and what is the salary of the Chief Air Raid Warden.

Actions of this type can be classed along with the activities of Fifth Columnists, and we who love our homes and our families and who have friends and relatives in the armed forces of this great country, love to be able to do the small amount that we are called upon to do for the defense of our country and our people.

We wish to reiterate that it is an insult and a grave injustice to the personnel of the Civilian Defense Organization in this county for such statements to be made.

MINDS

It wouldn't hurt the average person to read one of the mottoes in the Office of the War Production Board:

"Great minds talk about ideas; average minds talk about events; and small minds talk about people."

Just think about the talking you have been doing for the past two or three days and see what kind of a mind you have.

ARMY DOESN'T WANT THEM

LIEUTENANT-General Ben Lear minces no words in expressing his disapproval of the slogan: "Make them work or fight."

The Commander of the Second Army says that combat troops do not want any individual who is unwilling to work because he isn't good enough. The Army doesn't want his spirit and it doesn't want his presence.

General Lear makes a sensible suggestion when he points out that those who need discipline under the "Work or Fight" slogan, should be formed in labor battalions and given the job of building the highway to Alaska, or of working in other places in the interest of the country.

ADVERTISERS AND NEWSPAPERS

WE are rather interested in the statement of John Benson, president of the American Association of Advertising Agencies, who says that advertising agencies are spending thousands of dollars in research and testing to determine the best possible uses of newspaper advertising.

Without knowing the details of the expenditure, we nevertheless hazard the guess that the agencies are overlooking thousands of county newspapers, similar to The Sea Coast Echo, which have small circulations compared to the large dailies but which completely cover the counties in which they circulate.

Naturally, newspaper men are interested in the statement of Mr. Benson that he continues "to regard the newspaper medium as the main highway to the consumer market of the country." Despite this, many agencies, located in the larger cities and controlling most of the national advertising, persist in attempting to cover the areas through magazines.

We feel certain that when the study has been completed by the advertising agencies that the county newspaper will come in for their share of advertising.

Some of those who discuss public affairs are so influenced by their hates that the wonder is that they don't bite themselves.

The people of Bay St. Louis can help it along by buying at home. This not only keeps money in circulation here but it enables some business men to keep somebody employed.

CONGRESSMAN COLMER

The following is an editorial from the Prentiss Headlight, published on March 6th, 1942 at Prentiss in Jefferson Davis County, Mississippi.

WE are willing to concede to every man the right to offer for any political office he wishes, because that is certainly his right under our democratic procedure and is in line with American custom. But, AMERICA IS AT WAR—and in a very serious war at that. In these trying times we believe in experience rather than experiments. We believe that in public office this country needs now as never before, experience, plus patriotism and a conscientious sense of devotion to duty. Everyone knows, or should know, that this Federal Government is such a big thing, and the outcome of the war is so important to us all, that we cannot afford to have a newcomer who would have to waste valuable years in learning the ropes now that time is so vital. We believe that these trying times are no time for political races for mere political and personal reasons by persons whose sole qualification is there desire to hold office. There will be other years of peace ahead for politics and personalities (if such things have to be). But now, every man who knows and does his job well is needed on that job for the nation's welfare in this great crisis. Let us keep that man on the job, unharassed by politics.

We have such a man representing the Sixth Congressional District of Mississippi in the person of Congressman Wm. M. Colmer, who has served this district for 9 years. By virtue of that experience, plus his natural ability, he has made splendid progress. Bill Colmer is a member of the House Rules Committee, a select and exclusive committee, through which most of the important legislation affecting the nation's welfare must clear before reaching the floor of the House of Representatives. In fact, it is regarded as the most important committee in the House, and to be selected on that Committee is regarded as an outstanding tribute to a Member of the House. By virtue of this assignment, Mr. Colmer has reported and handled many of the important measures dealing with national defense. Too, it might be added, it is from this committee that most of the leadership of the House is developed. Speaker Bankhead who formerly served on this Committee is an example of this fact.

In this connection, Mr. Colmer was recently selected as one of the four Members of the Senate and House to serve on the National Forest Reservation Commission. This commission is composed of the Secretaries of War, Agriculture and Interior, together with a Democrat and a Republican Member from the Senate and the House.

While Bill Colmer has demonstrated that patriotic consideration of the nation's welfare is uppermost in his thoughts, he nevertheless has made an enviable record in his efforts to bring defense activities and projects to this Congressional District. While he does not claim all of the credit, it is nevertheless a known fact that there are more of these institutions in his Congressional District than possibly all of the rest of the State. Notable among these are Camp Shelby at Hattiesburg, the big shipbuilding concern at Pascagoula; Keesler Field, the Air Corps Technical Training School, at Biloxi; the Starch Plant at Laurel, and many smaller projects. His attentiveness and constant devotion to duty is a generally known and accepted fact. He has made an undeviating policy of remaining on the job while Congress was in session, even though thereby his political fence at home may have suffered.

Because of his achievements, because of his experience and ability to get things done are needed by his district and by the nation, and because it is highly important to this district to retain the important committee standing he now holds, we commend him to fellow citizens of the district for re-election, with the hope that our feeling is unanimous.

Editor's Note: We do not agree entirely with the Editor of the Prentiss Headlight, in that we should discontinue having elections and return the same man to office, because we are at war. It is our opinion that real, loyal, sincere, honest public officials should be reelected to office without opposition, regardless of whether we are at war, or not.

We feel that Bill Colmer should be reelected to Congress; we have been closely associated with him since 1927, when he was first elected District Attorney of the Second Judicial District, and we believe that if ever there was an honest, loyal and sincere public official Bill Colmer is one.

When the time for the August primaries arrive if Bill Colmer should have opposition, we are going to take our coat off and go to work, and do all that we possibly can to help in his re-election to Congress.

We sincerely hope that the boys who have been stung by the "Congressional Bee," and who have been talking about running for Congress will see the light of day and carry on where they are.

LONG FELT NEED FULFILLED

WE are indeed, happy to see that the Legislature of the State of Mississippi has at last recognized the need for the establishment of a reformatory and training school for the negro youths of Mississippi, under the age of eighteen years.

The 1942 session of the Legislature passed this law and the farm will be located at Oakley, near Raymond, Mississippi, and the necessary preparations have been made to erect the buildings. Anyone connected with the courts throughout the State of Mississippi will feel that a crying need has been fulfilled by the Legislature in the enactment of this law. Under our old laws, it was absolutely impossible to place a negro youth in an institution other than the county jail or the state penitentiary. We feel that much good can be accomplished in this institution if it is properly managed and supervised.

When a negro youth becomes an incorrigible and resorts to petty thievery and other minor infractions of the law, it will then be proper and right for the authorities to remove this youth and place him in training at this institution. We feel that many negro youths will be helped and made into better men through this medium, if they should happen to stray from the straight and narrow path.

Home-making may a lost art but there is much to be said for the ancient custom.

STANISLAUS NEWS NOTES

By Peter Benvenuti

DRAMATICS is the center of studies in the Freshman Class. They have mastered the "One Act Plays" and signed parts were capably handled by Randall Ferris, Frank Perrin, Karl Fasold, Kenneth Thompson, Frances Schubert, A. J. Scafide, and Paul Planchet. After the Easter holidays the class will study "The Merchant of Venice."

A beautiful cake was raffled last week by the Sophomore A Class. A large sum was collected and the cake was won by Jimmy Larroux.

The following boys are exempted from Spanish six weeks' test by obtaining a perfect mark in the oral test: Karl Fasold, Randall Ferris, Leonard Ferris, Levene Garcia, Dupre Lapointe, Paul Planchet, Francis Perrin, A. J. Scafide, Buddy Schofield, Francis Schubert, James Smith, Ray Marrero, Donald Arce-neaux and Randolph Bourgeois.

The standings of the Junior Study Hall baseball league is as follows: H. Pearson, won 4; lost 0. D. Foley, won 3; lost 1. C. Johnson, won 2; lost 2. Schofield, won 0; lost 4.

The Senior Class raffled, last Monday, the beautiful home-made pillow donated by Miss Mary Weinberger. The lucky boy was none other than our timid friend Leslie Scales. At first he was too bashful to take it, but finally made up his mind when he thought of the wonderful present it would be for his mother.

The Cake Walk given last Saturday afternoon was a grand success. This is the first time in the history of Stanislaus that a cake walk was given on the campus. There were many beautiful cakes donated by the members and parents of the Junior A Class. Some of those who won cakes were: Patsy Gex, Nelius Favre and Dickie Ranson. The Juniors wish to thank the parents who donated the cakes and the outsiders who attended.

Have you any newspapers, clothes-hangers, or bits of old clothes? The Eighth grade has been collecting these for the Missions. Thus far they have not disclosed any figures, but they have assured us that they are doing their part.

The Committees of the Band Auxiliary have been working hard on the various enterprises for the object of raising money for the band trip to Jackson. The raffle of the $25 Defense Bond is receiving much support.

On Sunday, April 19, at 8 p. m., the band will give its annual concert. There will be no charge and a splendid program is in view. There will be band numbers, solos, ensembles, and novelty numbers and entertainment for all music lovers.

State competition in solos and ensembles will be held in districts this year instead of at Jackson as in former years. Our district is at Gulfport and Hugh Kiefer will enter in a cornet solo. The contest is to take place on Saturday, April 11. The public is invited.

Brother Romuald tells us that he has been appointed as one of the four judges who will judge the solos and ensembles in the Southern District. Congratulations, Brother!

Father Daniel S. Lord, editor of the "Queens Work" and a National figure in Sodality work will be in New Orleans on April 12. This being the date of the one-day Convention to be held at St. Joseph's Memorial Hall, there is a possibility that he might be able to attend one of the sessions.

The Altar Boys of Our Lady of the Gulf, held a meeting last Friday morning. Father Neimeyer presided and the purpose of this meeting was to appoint servers for the services during Holy Week. The following boys were appointed: Cyril Piazza, A. Scafide, Lacy Green, Guy Drew, Horace Goeffray, Dickie Curran, Levene Garcia, C. J. Piazza, Eddie Landry and Pete Benvenuti.

In preparation for the Sodality Convention there was a discussion on the topic "Duties of a Sodality in the Home Life." This topic is to be presented in the convention by the Pass Christian Sodality. It was however, brought up by Peter Benvenuti who stated a few points and a discussion followed. Due to the absence of the prefect Elmer Breewood, J. T. Prosser presided.

Fire Department Answers Call From Pass Christian Saturday

The Bay St. Louis Fire Department responded to an emergency call from Pass Christian on last Saturday afternoon when fire destroyed an old building belonging to Mr. Martin Farrell, located in the heart of the business district of Pass Christian and which constituted a severe risk to this thickly populated section. The building was destroyed, also an automobile parked in a garage in the rear and an electric washer in an outhouse.

Hancock County Men in "The Service"

The Sea Coast Echo wishes to advise the parents or relatives of any of these men that it will gladly mail a copy of the paper to the boys if the address is given to the office. The newspapers will bring direct to the men away from home news of what the folks back home are doing and we hope this service will be one which they may enjoy.

The following list of names was supplied The Echo and should any service man's name be omitted it would be appreciated if it would be sent in.

Ships and More Ships Needed

FRESH from his fabulous defense of Bataan, General MacArthur stands now at the cross roads in Australia. It is a big order the President has given him. That he is big enough to fill it has been demonstrated in France, in the Philippines, and elsewhere. Given the means, the ships and planes, the machines and rifles, the guns and ammunition, no one doubts that he will succeed. We now have sufficient war materials to arm MacArthur's forces in Australia, but shipping there is the trouble. We are now producing arms in a sufficient amount to be able to furnish our allies very substantial aid, but there again shipping is the problem.

Our own Gulf Coast is taking an active part in meeting the situation. At Pascagoula there is located a gigantic shipbuilding concern where an average of one 17,500 ton ship is launched each month. There are nearly 4,000 workers there engaged in this momentous and necessary task. At Moss Point barges are being built for the army. At Biloxi small craft are being constructed for the Navy. However, when we realize that we are now losing on the high seas over a ship a day, it can be seen what we are up against. We must build, build, build ships and more ships. Arms for the world are no good if we cannot carry them to the world.

In this connection, and realizing the full significance of the necessity for ships, we have addressed the following appeal in the form of a personal letter to each of these shipyard workers, stressing the importance of their work:

"Dear Fellow Americans:

I hope you will not consider me presumptuous in addressing you on a subject that has been giving me, and should give all true Americans, the greatest concern. This country—one of the few countries in the world where a man can labor, breathe, think, and talk under a free government—is face to face with the problem of whether it will survive. It is not alone a question whether or not we can maintain the American way of life; but it is a question whether or not we will save our own skins.

The news from all fronts is bad and will continue to be so until we can produce enough ships and planes and other materials of war to turn the tide. Our allies are so hard pressed by the enemy that they cannot produce; so it is up to America. Labor and industry are the key to the situation. We have the resources and the ability to produce whatever is necessary to win. It is a question whether we will make the necessary sacrifice to win.

You are building ships (almost in my front yard), and ships are essential to carry the men and equipment to the enemy. If we get enough ships we can take the war to the enemy; otherwise he will bring it to us. You are just as necessary to the winning of this war as the soldier in the trenches or the sailor on the sea. And by this same token your responsibility to your country is just as great as his. Under the accepted rules of warfare the soldier and the sailor are required to bare their breasts to the infernal war machines of the enemy and sacrifice their lives by the millions. Those of us in civilian life are asked—no forced—to support them by sacrifice on the home front. I am most alarmed over the immediate prospect and the apparent complacency on the part of most of us on the home front. We are following a road of indifference that led to the fall of France. We must change that policy while there is still time. A year from now may be too late.

The President of the United States has called on us all to do our part. As your Representative in the Congress, as a laboring man who worked his way through high school and college, as one who believes in labor and labor unions (Hitler and Hirohito permit no labor unions), as one who is a friend of labor and wants to see it prosper, I commend you for the splendid job you are doing and appeal to you to redouble your efforts to win the war and prevent us from becoming the slaves of Hitler and his kind.

Sincerely yours,
WILLIAM M. COLMER."

ORTE THEATER SUNDAY AND MONDAY "HELLZAPOPPIN"

Olsen and Johnson Broadway Smash Funnier On Screen

"Hellzapoppin," modestly described the greatest smash-bang, eye-filling, tune-filled show to hit New York in a dozen years, has reached the screen with the original stars, Olsen and Johnson, plus Martha Raye, Hugh Herbert, Mischa Auer, Jane Frazee and Robert Page. The picture plays at the Orte Theater, Sunday and Monday.

Released by Universal, the Jules Levey Mayfair production boasts many new song hits composed for the picture. Singing and dancing choruses together with a score of unexpected innovations are declared to surpass the many high-lights of the great Broadway success.

Included in the tune list are: "Watch The Birdie," sung by Martha Raye and The Six Hits, "You Were There," sung by Jane Frazee and chorus, "Heaven For Two," warbled by Jane Frazee and Robert Page and the Martha Raye number, "What Kind of Love Is This."

Among other spectacle sequences will be the colorful presentation of the Olive Hatch Water Ballet.

Olsen and Johnson, of course, play their own crackpot, screwball, zany selves just as they did in the New York play, and Miss Raye has the role of an overgrown kiddle vaudeville player.

Nat Perrin and Warren Wilson co-authored the screen play which is based on an original story by Perrin.

The production, of course, is suggested by the remarkable stage play, "Olsen and Johnson's Hellzapoppin."

Associate producers for "Hellzapoppin" were Glenn Tryon and Alex Gottlieb, the men who made the

"SUN OF FURY" TO BE AT A. &amp; G. THEATER SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Escape from today's troubles into the world of England's King George III is to be had in these adventures of Tyrone Power depicted with the realism, grandeur and grimness of Darryl Zanuck's talent applied to a subject of his liking.

"Son of Fury" is from the novel, "Benjamin Blake," by Edison Marshall, treated for screen purposes by Philip Dunne and directed with power and precision by John Cromwell, with William Perleberg associate producer. The film bears the Zanuck signature and conforms in every department of composition, execution and polish with the standard which the name symbolizes.

Mr. Power portrays a young man who has been deprived of his noble birthright by an uncle who holds him in bondage, treating him brutally during childhood and attempting to extend his mastery into manhood by means of imprisonment. The young man escapes from England aboard a sailing vessel, finds a wife and a fortune in pearls on a Pacific island, returns to England to reclaim his birthright, thwart his uncle, bestow his worldly world to rights, returns to the island and the wife who has awaited him there.

The action, all of which occurs in finely appointed settings, includes a number of fistic encounters, some floggings, escapes, pursuits, rescues, all the staples of romantic adventure. George Sanders, as the cruel and powerful persecutor of the hero, turns in a memorable performance.

Previewed at the studio to a group of fifteen press people who pronounced the picture a success in the field of adventure.—William R. Weaver.

Characters in the picture are: Benjamin Blake—Tyrone Power. Sir Arthur Blake—George Sanders. Eve—Gene Tierney. Isabel—Frances Farmer. Benjamin (as a boy)—Roddy McDowall.

108th Session, Closed.

THE 108th session of the Mississippi Legislature came to a formal close on Monday evening, Mar. 23rd. The work of passing bills had been concluded on Saturday, the 21, and an extra day was allowed the Governor for consideration and signing of bills, hence the formal closing came late Monday afternoon. A careful check up of the work of both houses shows that about 1286 bills were introduced, 883 in the House and 403 in the Senate. About 570 of these were enacted into law, with the possible exception of three or four which may have been held over by the Governor. Approximately 409 House Bills were enacted into law and about 161 Senate Bills found their way to the Statute books. The remainder either being defeated during the session or were left on the calendar.

Appropriations 46 Millions.

A summary of general fund appropriations shows that the aggregate amount appropriated was $46,006,323.79 for the biennium beginning July 1st, 1942, and ending June 30th, 1944. The State Tax Commission estimates that the general fund revenues for the biennium, including such surplus as will be left in the treasury from the present accumulation, will reach a total of about $45,736,000.00, which would leave a deficit of only $270,323.79, but this, of course, is subject to such variations as might come one way or the other. But the law-makers took the precaution to provide that in case the income falls short and a deficit comes that short term notes amounting to two million dollars may be issued and sold by the Bond Commission to meet all demands until the next regular session, in 1944.

Schools Fair Well.

The largest increase made to any one cause was that to the public schools, which appropriation for the ensuing biennium exceeded that of two years ago by $1,675,000. There was also a substantial increase to the cause of old-age assistance and a small increase to the charity hospitals, including the per capita appropriations for the treatment of the destitute sick in the small hospitals of the state.

Absentee Ballot.

A bill of general interest enacted into law is one allowing all persons serving in any branch of the military service of the United States during the present war to vote an absentee ballot in primaries and that without paying poll tax that might be due under normal conditions. All persons who are otherwise qualified to vote may request the circuit clerk of his county to send him a ticket, which he prepared for that special purpose, and it may be filled out and mailed to the proper officer and voted in the election. All details will be explained when the ballot is requested.

Register Fire Arms.

One of the new laws requires all persons having firearms of any kind, shotguns, rifles, pistols, machine guns, or other weapons which might be used for defense purposes to register same with the sheriff of the county. The Sheriff will have blanks printed for the purpose of listing all such firearms or weapons of any kind, giving a description, their location and the owner will be asked to indicate if he would be willing to sell or loan such guns or weapons to the sheriff in case they should be needed for the purpose of defense.

A law was enacted making it a felony for any one, individually or as a member of an association or organization of any kind, to preach, teach, or agitate in any way any spirit of disloyalty to the government, state or federal, during the present war, or to be guilty of any character of disloyalty or sabotage or of advocating the cause of the enemy or of giving away military secrets or circulating any sort of reports or rumors which might lead to strife or, forment disloyalty to the state or nation.

The bill providing free textbooks for the high schools was finally passed, as one of the very last bills to be considered. This bill has been a source of controversial debate almost during the entire session of the law-makers. A bill was passed creating a board of pardons, to consist of three members appointed by the Governor. It will be their duty to make a full investigation of all cases where pardons are being sought and report the findings to the Governor with recommendations.

STARS IN THE SPOTLIGHT! BY ETHEL VINE

Spencer Tracy's unusual acting career proves that you can reach the top and keep on going. Twice he has won the Academy Award, first for his performance in "Captains Courageous," and the following year, in 1939, for his Father Flannigan in "Boys Town." He is currently co-starring with Katharine Hepburn in "Woman of the Year." It was at the request of the celebrated actress that Tracy was given the male lead in this romance about a woman newspaper columnist and a sports writer. The story was written by Ring Lardner, Jr. and Michael Kanin for Miss Hepburn.

Killer Meets
In "The Last Mile," which had its premiere on Broadway Feb. 13, 1940, Spencer Tracy first attracted wide attention for his notable performance as "Killer Meers." Previously, he had starred in the hard way, playing stock on the road, and doing small parts in New York plays and often living on pretzels and rice during long periods of being "at liberty." But with "The Last Mile" his luck changed.

$15 A Week
Tracy hails originally from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He attended school there and later spent two years at Ripon College, at Ripon, Wis., before entering the American Academy of Dramatic Art in New York City. His first part in the Theater Guild was "R. U. R." for which he was paid the princely sum of $15 a week. Eventually the show went as our and he was raised to $40. Finally via the "sticks" route and Broadway hits, he arrived in "The Last Mile" which changed his luck. Subsequently he repeated his success in the same role on the screen and in 1935 he was signed to a long term contract by M. C. M. after completing "The Sign of the Cross" with Midge Egan. From then on Tracy climbed success rapidly. With such pictures as "San Francisco," "Fury," "They Gave Him a Gun," "Captains Courageous," "Big City" and "Test Pilot," he proved a versatility and a penetrating power of characterization which has become steadily greater with each new picture.

SCRAP TO HELP BEAT JAPS GETS IMPETUS AS SCRAP ROUNDED UP

Capitol Yields Over 6,000 Pounds of Needed Metal

The Salvage for Victory program in Mississippi was given official impetus Friday when, with Governor Paul B. Johnson and State Chairman Leland Speed standing by, a truck loaded with scrap-iron salvaged from the basement of the New Capitol building rolled away, its destination a local scrap-iron dealer. A total of 6,190 pounds of scrap metal was removed from the basement of the building during the day, and sold to a local dealer for 70 cents per hundred pounds.

Attaches of the office of John Laird, capitol engineer, said some of the scrap-iron salvaged from the basement of the building Friday had been there "40 years." Chairman Speed said the salvaged material was composed mostly of old, worn out pumps, and water pipes.

In commenting upon the salvage for victory movement, a program for supplementing raw materials that are not adequate to guarantee the production needed for the nation's war effort, Governor Johnson emphasized that waste paper, old rags, scrap metal and old rubber are especially needed. Stating that he based his comment upon information released by the Bureau of Industrial Conservation, War Production board, the chief executive said the reasons for salvaging every pound of these materials possible are as follows:

"Scrap metal makes the steel, brass, copper, lead, and other metals needed for guns, planes, tanks and ships we must have for victory.

"Waste paper makes new paper-board in which to ship munitions, clothing, and food to America's fighting men at home and overseas.

"Old rubber makes new rubber for our motorized forces—for planes, tanks and battleships—and for essential civilian needs.

"Old rags make needed materials for emergency use, especially in cleaning machinery in war industries and reworked textiles."

Whereas, this Board has, at its first regular meeting after the filing of the said petition, determined that said petition do contain more than 20 per cent of the qualified electors of said consolidated school district; and

Whereas, the said Board of Supervisors is authorized by the provisions of Chapter 5982 and 5983 of the Mississippi Code of 1930, and all amendments thereto and supplemental thereto, to issue said bonds; and finding that application of J. M. Pearson for said homestead exemption is on file in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, is of the opinion that the same should be allowed, and hereby enters its objection to said adjustment by the State Tax Commission.

This day came on for hearing and consideration by the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, Mississippi, the matter of the disapproval of the State Tax Commission to the Homestead Exemption of Mrs. Virginia McLeod on the ground that, no application has been filed, and the Board having considered said matter and finding that application of Mrs. Virginia McLeod for said homestead exemption is on file in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, is of the opinion that the same should be allowed, and hereby enters its objection to said adjustment by the State Tax Commission.

MILDRED Baker, Julia Mae Lee, and Ladell Lee from Kiln School will go to the Hattiesburg Livestock Show, April 2 to judge poultry.

These girls showed that they had given poultry selection a careful study at the teaming school held last Saturday for Hancock and Harrison County poultry club members over 15 years of age.

Poultry culling is receiving more attention by all poultry flock owners this year as poultry records show that it requires approximately 96 eggs to pay for the feed upkeep of a hen for a year. Therefore hens need to lay 150 more eggs each year if a good income for labor and investment are to be obtained.

Explanation of Farm Security Administration

The Farm Security Administration helps low-income farm families become self-supporting. It gives them advice on farm and home management and often advances the credit needed to act on the advice.

More than 1,500,000 rural families have received FSA assistance since 1934. Most FSA borrowers were victims of agricultural misfortunes beyond their control. From no other source but the FSA could these folks get the credit they needed for a new start—adequate credit at reasonable interest.

A wide variety of assistance is offered by the Farm Security Administration.

In Hancock County the FSA has workers who are known as supervisors. The principal job of the supervisors is to help borrower families develop sound plans for farm and home management. On the basis of such plans FSA operating loans are made.

The loans finance the plans. Successful plans produce income that can be used to repay the loans. Farm plans ordinarily provide for production of at least two cash crops. Plans call for feed and forage crops for livestock and enough milk, meat eggs and vegetables—all raised on the farm—to meet family needs. The loan is always large enough so that the farmer can buy the seed, tools, livestock, and other equipment essential in his farming operations.

Many borrower families are being urged this year to produce extra amounts of milk, cheese, pork, eggs, vegetables and other foods needed for national defense.

Rehabilitation Loans

If a farmer is in need of credit and can't get it at reasonable interest from any other source, he is eligible to apply for an FSA standard rehabilitation loan. If a prospective borrower doesn't own his farm he must have a satisfactory lease or purchase contract. An effort is made to see that each borrower has land which will support his family and produce enough income to repay the loan. The loans are secured by chattel mortgages on livestock, machinery, and crops. The term of the loans is 1 to 5 years and they bear 5 percent interest.

Community Service Loans

When a number of farmers need an item of equipment or a farm or home service too expensive for any one of them to own and operate individually, the Farm Security Administration can lend the members of the group enough money to swing the deal jointly. The farmers enter into an agreement with each other showing how much they will pay for the use of the service and how the service is to be managed and operated.

Farm Purchase Plan

Congress has authorized the Farm Security Administration to make a limited number of loans each year to help tenants to buy farms of their own. A tenant-purchase loan is large enough to enable the borrower to buy adequate farm land and if necessary, to repair the buildings or put up new ones. The loans are repayable over a period of 40 years at 3 percent interest.

County committees, each consisting of three farmers, decide on the basis of character, ability, and farming experience which applicants shall receive loans.

How to Apply for FSA Aid

Any farmer who is interested in applying for the loans or services of the Farm Security Administration should call at the county supervisor's office. If the applicant is eligible for help, the supervisor will be glad to go over his case and help him make out this application.

The Hancock County FSA office is the Court House in Bay St. Louis, located in the Cox Building East of the Courthouse in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

WEEKLY BOOK REVIEW

READING I'VE LIKED

By CLIFTON FADIMAN

Reviewed by Mrs. C. P. Jones

If you listen to Information Please, Friday evenings on the radio you are familiar with Clifton Fadiman, urbane and witty literary critic of the New Yorker. In "Reading I've Liked," now available at the library he has selected his favorites from current literature in a volume which will interest anyone who likes good reading. Not all of these fragments are great literature but they have all that quality on which real art should be based in that they "set a bell ringing in the brain."

Here is almost every form of prose writing from the concise, well cut stories of Somerset Maugham to the precise and faded daguerotypes of Sarah Orne Jewett; from Thomas Mann, who wrote the Nobel prize, to Joseph Steinbeck, who wrote the Grapes of Wrath. If you like humor here is James Thurber who draws the funny dogs and equally funny ladies, and Ring Lardner with lusty, all American slang. Alexander Woolcott inspired the Man Who Came To Dinner and also contributed a sketch to this book; as did also John Dos Passos and Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes. It is as varied as that. If philosophy is your dish here is Geo. Santayana, the Harvard sage, with his flawless lecture on substance, and Bertrand Russell on the subject of man's worship. A few of the contributors are writers, as E. M. Forster whose reputation as a master of English style rests on one novel, A Passage to India. Ernest Hemingway and Virginia Woolf have little in common except that they both write so well, and roaming through the book you will find mystery stories and detective yarns and almost anything you crave.

The selections are nearly all contemporaneous and most of the writers are still alive, but you will find there several notable exceptions. Thomas Wolfe is not to be found in these pages, nor A. J. Cronin nor Charles Morgan. Kathleen Norris and Edna Ferber are both absent and Fadiman's own comments and running prefaces would be worth a book in themselves, without the assistance of his writers.

A bizarre selection, it might seem, varied enough to suit the taste of almost everyone. They are alike in one quality, that they are all well written, and form a good argument to those who claim that the mastery of English prose died out with the Georgians. As a book it forms a fascinating mirror of the mind of this Fadiman, the most fastidious and discriminating critic of our day.

Bill of Interest To Coast Fisheries Introduced By Senator Wall Doxey

Our Junior Senator, Wall Doxey, has introduced a bill in the United States Senate to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to cooperate with the States in carrying out of projects designed to develop, restore and replenish supplies of commercial sea foods. It is our opinion that this bill will be a great help to the people of the Gulf Coast.

Senator Doxey, in our opinion, is a real friend to the people of this section and will do all in his power to help in matters that would be of material benefit to us.

A copy of the bill introduced is as follows:

To authorize the Secretary of the Interior to cooperate with the States in the carrying out of projects designed to develop, restore, and replenish supplies of commercial sea foods.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

That the Congress hereby finds that the commercial sea-foods industry is of vital national importance because of the supply of food which it makes available for the use of American consumers and because of the number of persons to whom it furnishes employment. It is therefore in the public interest that the United States should cooperate with the States in the taking of action designed to conserve, protect, restore, and replenish supplies of commercial sea foods, to exterminate commercial sea-food pests to eliminate conditions adversely affecting supplies of commercial sea foods, and to develop marketing programs for the orderly and efficient marketing of commercial sea foods.

The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to cooperate with the States, through their respective State fish and game departments, in the carrying out of commercial sea-food projects. The Secretary of the Interior and the State fish and game department of each State accepting the benefits of this Act shall agree upon the commercial sea-food projects to be carried out in such State with the aid of funds made available under the provisions of this Act. All such projects shall conform to standards fixed by the Secretary of the Interior.

There are hereby authorized to be appropriated for each fiscal year, beginning with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943, such sums as the Congress may deem it appropriate to make available to the Secretary of the Interior for the purpose of cooperating with the States in carrying out commercial sea-food projects. Any sum appropriated pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be available for expenditure until the end of the fiscal year following that for which such sum is appropriated.

Any state desiring to avail itself of the benefits of this Act shall by its State fish and game department submit to the Secretary of the Interior full and detailed statements of any commercial sea-food project which it proposes to carry out by the use of funds appropriated to it under the provisions of this Act.

The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to enable him to carry out the provision of this Act.

The Secretary of the Interior shall make an annual report to the Congress giving detailed information as to the projects carried out under the provisions of this Act and expenditures therefor.

Youth: The Hope of The Nation

Many years before the commencing of the present world conflict, Germany realized that in youth lies the strength of a nation. Immediately they started taking advantage of this fact. As soon as boys were able to talk they were and still are sent to camps where they are taught and trained mentally and physically so that they can be of service to their country. Girls likewise are sent to separate camps where they are trained in the arts of home life. By thus doing, Germany assured itself of a strong country bound together by the powerful chains of youth. Because she has realized the importance of youth she has been able to succeed.

I'm not praising Germany but I'm praising the fact that she is awake to the necessity of any nation; the training of its youth. Their idea of training children from the time they reach the age of reason is very good but they overdo it, transfer as they believe that the purpose is directly for the betterment of the state. They also believe that the individual belongs to the State and not that the State belongs to the people.

We, of the United States particularly its youth, have become spoiled by luxuries of life to such an extent the majority do not realize that freedom and liberty is a privilege which will last only as long as we're able to protect it. Can we protect it now? That is the question which now stirs within us. At present that cannot be answered, but let us make sure that we can answer that question in the near future. Let us prepare ourselves mentally and physically for the jobs which Uncle Sam has for us. By thus doing, we will be assured that our protection of freedom, liberty, and all that is dear to us will be effective. The Rock-A-Chew.

THE FLAG CODE

The National Flag should be raised and lowered by hand. It should be displayed only from sunrise to sunset, or between such hours as may be designated by proper authority.

Do not use the Flag while it is furled. Unfurl, then hoist quickly to the top of the staff. Lower it slowly and with dignity.

When the Flag is hung as a banner across and over the center lines of a street running east and west, the union should be to the north, and to the east in a street running north and south.

Where the National Flag is displayed with State and other flags, it should be given the place of honor on the right. Display the Flag upon a staff when possible.

Place no objects on or over the Flag. Various articles are sometimes placed on a speaker's table covered with the flag. This practice should be avoided.

Always let the Flag hang straight. Do not freeston over doors or arches or tie in a bow knot. Use red, white and blue bunting for decorative purposes.

When flags are used in unveiling a statue or monument they should not be allowed to fall to the ground, but should be carried aloft, forming a feature of the ceremony.

Take every precaution to prevent the Flag from becoming soiled. It should not be allowed to touch the top of the staff. Before lowering it should likewise be hoisted to the top. On Memorial Day display at half-mast until noon only; then hoist to top of staff.

When displayed in the channel or on a platform in a church, the Flag should be at the congregation's right as they face the clergyman.

Do not use the Flag as a portion of a costume or athletic uniform. Do not embroider it upon cushions or handkerchiefs nor print it on paper napkins or boxes.

When carried in a procession, military or otherwise, the Flag should be borne to the right of regimental or other flags.

A Federal Law provides that a violation of the Flag Code is a crime. Let us prepare ourselves mentally and physically for the jobs which Uncle Sam has for us. By thus doing, we will be assured that our protection of freedom, liberty, and all that is dear to us will be effective. The Rock-A-Chew.
